The 2019 Haut-Bailly II is a very serious second wine. Big, potent tannins give the 2019 much of its somber, brooding personality. Black cherry, graphite, licorice, cloves and new leather infuse the 2019 with tremendous complexity. Readers should be prepared to cellar the 2019 for at least a few years. If this tasting is any indication, it is a real powerhouse with quite a bit of cellaring potential. 92-94

Chewy depth to the tannins, buoyed up by juice rippling through the red berry fruits. Gourmet and silky, a creamy texture through the mid palate with hints of subtle caramel and baked earth.

Excellent. 92

Cassis, framboise, épices, légèrement fumé, floral. Droit, tendu, belle précision d'ensemble pour un vin frais et délicat. Très belle gestion de l'acidité et de la date de vendanges. Très beaux tanins, de la tension, de l'énergie également. Un Haut-Bailly II qui fera date. Superbe ! Un des plus sensuels. 93-95

The second wine of Château Haut-Bailly and based largely on Merlot, the 2019 Château Haut-Bailly II is a soft, seductive Graves with beautiful blue and black fruit as well as notes of chocolate, tobacco, and damp earth. Medium to full-bodied, with delicious fruit and silky tannins, drink it on release and over the following 10-15 years 90-92

The second wine of Château Haut-Bailly shows a fine balance between firm tannins and generous, ripe and dense black fruits. With 60% Merlot in the blend, this rich wine has a plump character that means that it will develop relatively quickly into a full-bodied win 94

Beautiful aromas of sweet tobacco, chocolate and spice follow through to a medium body with sweet tannins and a round, creamy texture. Lovely now. Structured, yet juicy. 92-93

The 2019 Haut-Bailly II, formerly La Parde de Haut-Bailly, was picked from 23 September to 10 October. This bursts from the glass with crushed strawberry, dark cherries, vanilla and light sous-bois aromas - utterly charming. The palate is medium-bodied with finely-chiseled tannins, a keen line of acidity, precise and vibrant with just a touch of piquancy on the finish. This is an absolutely delightful second label that comes highly recommended. 91-93

Composed of 40% Cabernet Sauvignon and 60% Merlot, the 2019 Haut-Bailly II was harvested from the 23rd of September to the 10th of October. Medium to deep garnet-purple in color, the nose is already wonderfully forward and harmonious, featuring bright black cherries, blackberry preserves and wild blueberries scents plus suggestions of lavender, tilled soil and unsmoked cigars. Medium to full-bodied, the palate has a solid foundation of chewy tannins and oodles of freshness backing up the muscular, mouth-coating black and blue fruits, finishing fruity. 88-90

Rouge grenat dense aux reflets violets. Bouquet invitant et complexe aux notes fruitées et épicées. Agréable touche de cannelle et de baies rouges puis, avec un peu d'aération, des nuances de baies noires. En bouche le vin est friand, voire suave en attaque. Il a de la fraîcheur, de la finesse et affiche des tannins parfaitement intégrés, bien enrobés, et une structure juteuse qui supporte idéalement l'expression aromatique jusqu'en fin de bouche, ce qui est de bon augure pour la finale qui s'en retrouve fruitée et persistante. 92-93

年目に入ったセカンド「オー・バイイ・II 2019」(Haut-Bailly・II 2019) は波に乗っている。メルロ、カベルネ・ソーヴィニヨン。クラッシュしたダークベリー、リコリス、鉄、シルキーなタンニン、ほのかにミネラルで複雑なニュアンス。コアの果実がギュッと詰まっているが、軽やかさと活気があり、精妙なフィニッシュ。極めてレベルの高いセカンド。点。93

Dark purple colour with violet hue and black core. Enjoyable nose with an aroma reminiscent of black cherries, stewed blackberries and hints of sweet plums in the background. On the palate fine-spun character with crisp fruit, mild spices and discreet minerality. Well structured with freshness, fine tannins and convincing length. 92

Fine mix of cherries and blackcurrants on the nose, well-constructed with fine complexity on the palate with velvety texture, sweet tannins, persistent aftertaste. Fine second wine. 92

Ripe and pure on the nose. Dark-fruit notes, the cassis more obvious as it opens. Medium bodied with a touch of sweetness on attack then crunchy fruit on the mid palate. Slight savoury edge then minerally and dry on the finish, the Graves imprint present. 16,5

Dunkles Rubingranat, violette Refle, dezente Randaufhellung. Feine Nuancen von Cassis und Lakritze, zarte Noten von eingelegten Kirschen, ein Hauch von Schokolade und kandierten Orangenzesten. Mittlere Komplexität, feines Waldbeerkonfit, integrierte Tannine, dezente Extraktsüße im Abgang, ein facettenreicher Speisenbegleiter. Dunkles Rubingranat, violette Refle, dezente Randaufhellung. Würziges, samtenes, kräftiges Bouquet, Pflaumen, Mocca, Caramel, Tabak, Korinthen, Brombeeren. Cremiger, süsser, fruchtiger Gaumen mit guter Aromatik, feinem Tannin, fein opulenter Struktur, kräftiger Frucht, langer, molliger Abgang. 17/20

I am a fan of the other property under the same ownership, but there is no doubt that the second wine of Haut-Bailly is a step up from Le Pape in this vintage. It has a similar matt-mulberry hue in the glass, and a similarly modest concentration of colour, but the aromatics are immediately more scented and perfumed, with fragrant cherry, blackcurrant and plum notes, with a little floral overlay. It presents a quite charming balance at first, then as is typical of the vintage in the middle it broadens out to reveal the energy, the structure and the grip. Elegant, with a broader and more apparent wrapping of tannins here, with a finely grained character to them, and fresh acids too. As primary as Le Pape, but so complete on the finish, and with greater potential for the cellar. 92-94

Earthy with a smoke, cigar, cocoa and red berry nose, the wine is elegant, soft, medium-bodied and forward. The tannins are silky, the fruit is fresh and this will drink well right out of the gate. What more could you ask for from this blend of 60% Merlot and 40% Cabernet Sauvignon? 91

Très noblement parfumé, le second vin de Haut-Bailly affiche une profondeur remarquable. L'harmonie de sa chair savoureuse, prodigue en suggestions de tabac, d'humus, d'épices, se livre avec un naturel confondant. 93

The second wine of Haut-Bailly is impressive, with ripe tannins and dense black fruits. It brings concentration, spice and a structure that definitely has a fine potential. Drink the wine from 2025. 94

Ma meilleure note donnée à ce cru en Primeur. Pour mémoire, La Parde de Haut Bailly (second vin) s'appelle Haut Bailly II depuis le millésime 2018. Couleur sombre, intense, pourpre et belle. Nez très aromatique, au fruité pur et mûr. Minutieux dans sa texture dès son entrée en bouche, avec un bel éclat dans le goût et un corps caressant, le vin s'étire en finale, très savoureux, très bien construit, sur une bonne longueur à la tannicité impeccable. Il est incrachable. 91
